School Attendance Review Boards (SARBs) are composed of school and community members who meet regularly to diagnose and resolve persistent student attendance or behavior problems. County SARBs are convened by the county superintendent at the beginning of each school year. Yuba County Office of Education serves as the coordinating agency for the Student Attendance Review Board (SARB) process. School Attendance Review Boards (SARBs) help truant or recalcitrant students and their parents or guardians solve school attendance and behavior problems through the use of available school and community resources.

The Superintendent of Schools works with all districts in Yuba County to ensure positive attendance for all students in Yuba County.
